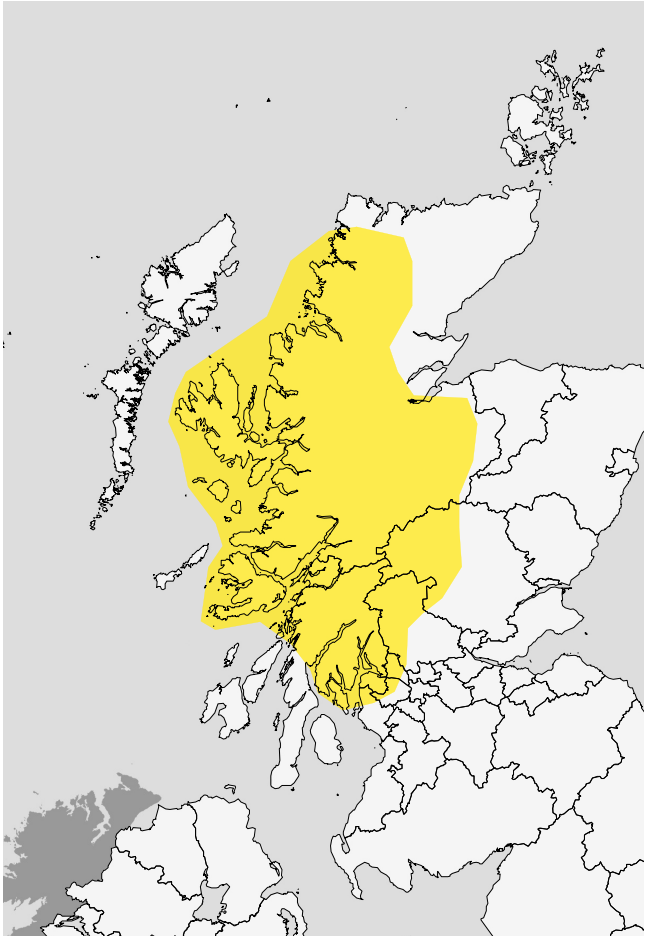
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
18:00 Sun 4 Feb 2024 and
21:00 Mon 5 Feb 2024



Persistent and at times heavy rainfall bringing some disruption, especially to travel

What to expect

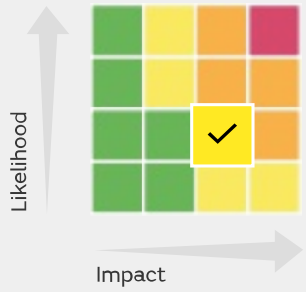
- There is a chance that homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Where flooding occurs, there is a chance of delays or cancellations to train and bus services
- Spray and flooding could lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- There is a chance that some communities will become cut off by flooded roads
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life

Further details

Further heavy rain will affect much of western Scotland through the rest of Monday. A further 40-75 mm of rain may fall quite widely on top of what has already fallen, most likely in parts of Argyll, Lochaber and Wester Ross, leading to a risk of some flooding and travel disruption.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



Low likelihood of medium impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.

Reason for update

Warning area extended northeast to cover the Spey, and likelihood of impacts slightly increased.
